

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, More than 111,000 South Dakotans are members of the 85 Federal Credit Unions throughout the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Credit unions are cooperatives which mobilize resources of men and women of the community voluntarily through productive and providential loans to improve the quality of life for other members and their families; and,

WHEREAS, Credit unions thereby contribute to the economic enhancement of the community or area in which they serve as viable financial co-operatives; and,

WHEREAS, Credit unions are member-owned, democratically controlled, not-for-profit institutions dedicated to the principles of cooperation, including the education of members as to the benefits and requisites of thrift and planned, regular saving; and,

WHEREAS, Credit union membership carries certain responsibilities which call upon each member to act on behalf of the co-operative to continue its service according to the expressed needs of all who belong;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 18, 1984, as
